

JUDSON AGREES TO HAVE STATESMEN VISIT ANACOSTIA

He Will Ask District Committees To Look Into Improvement Needs.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU: ANACOSTIA, D. C., SEPT. 14.

The assurances given by Major Judson that he will have the members of the District committees visit Anacostia to examine the situation here with reference to the repaving of Nichols avenue, the widening of the highway, and the taking down of the overhead trolley wires, are receiving favorable comment today in this section of the District, as they did last night at the meeting of the Anacostia Citizens' Association.

These improvements, it was made plain to the citizens by the Commissioner, cannot be undertaken until the trolley wires are under ground, and as yet he said the causeway made the south end of the Anacostia bridge had not settled enough for the railroad company to proceed with the work.

Formal action to obtain free delivery of express and reduced transfer rates in Anacostia will be started before October 1. This announcement was made by F. S. Bright, attorney for the Anacostia Citizens' Association, this morning.

As soon as the petition can be drawn up it will be presented to the Interstate Commerce Commission, said Mr. Bright. "An attempt has been made to get concessions without formal action, but as the express companies replied that they would not give free delivery and the transfer company has declined to reduce its rates, we will start the formal actions."

After the petitions are filed, the Adams, the Southern, the American, and the United States Express Companies will have twenty days in which to reply. It is expected that the petitions of the association will be disposed of by the commission by next July.

Mr. Thompson, a merchant, declared his experiences have shown that goods shipped on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad to Anacostia are sidetracked in the city unless billed "Uniontown, D. C." Maurice Otterback explained that the name "Uniontown" frequently becomes confused with a Uniontown in some other State, causing business transactions to be delayed.

The association will ask the railroad to do away with the name "Uniontown."

Mr. Otterback exacted a promise from the superintendent of the Street Cleaning Department yesterday that no more waste paper will be thrown about carelessly on the river front.

President Burr called attention to the need of a spark arrester on No. 15 fire engine. The Commissioners will be asked to furnish one.

Contact has been awarded for the construction of the interceptor sewer between Poplar Point and Kenilworth. The work is to be started soon.

Percy Keating, representing the Rhode Island Avenue Citizens' Association, addressed the association on the issues of universal transfers, better street car service in general in the District, better equipment, and an all-night car service. President Burr said the Anacostia organization is working for these objects through the Federated Citizens' Association. John F. Earnshaw was named to co-operate with the Rhode Island Avenue Suburban Association in these matters.

A Big Factor in Bringing About

= A Lower Cost of Living =

Six months ago this body of reliable grocers banded together to bring about "lower cost of living" prices. At that time the League was an experiment. Today, six months from the birth of this organization, THE LEAGUE OF CONSUMERS' FRIENDS stands as a proven success—an emphatic success.

When we say a success, we do not mean merely a success from our own standpoint, but from the standpoint of the grocery buying public. Groceries of the very best quality at lower prices than are asked elsewhere for the ordinary kind is the one great reason for this success.

Experience is the greatest of all teachers. While we have saved the public much money in the past six months, even greater savings are assured our customers during the next six months. Our ever-increasing reputation as buyers of vast quantities of groceries is causing manufacturers all over the country to grant us greater and still greater price concessions on large lots in order to secure our patronage. What this saves us we in turn save YOU.

What more striking example could you want that these are the stores that save you money, than
